

EWHS Course Scope & Sequence

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|--|---|
| Course Title | Sophomore English | | | |
| Course Overview | This course is divided into 4 units using Savvas MyPerspectives Grade 10 curriculum. | | | |
| Unit Component | Unit 1 | Unit 2 | Unit 3 | Unit 4 |
| Title | Extending Freedom's Reach | Inside the Nightmare | Virtue and Vengeance | All That Glitters |
| Guiding or Essential Questions (if applicable) | What is the relationship between power and freedom? | What is the allure of fear? | What motivates us to forgive? | What do our possessions reveal about us? |
| Topic This should be the overarching theme or big idea. Brief overview of the unit. | In this unit, students learn what it means to be powerful and what it means to be free. Students will read a variety of texts and view media as they discuss the Essential Question for the unit. | In this unit, students will investigate the theme of fear, considering why frightening topics are so intriguing to people. Students will read a variety of texts, view informational graphics, and view media as they discuss the Essential Question. | In this unit, students focus on forgiveness and all the concepts that intersect with it: anger, betrayal, humanity, compassion, and more. Through a deep character study of The Tempest and several companion texts, students will examine the effects of loss and betrayal on people and analyze how we as | In this unit, students examine the effects of materialism and commercialism on our modern society. Students will read across genres (short stories, poetry, non-fiction, and media) to explore the relationship between greed, wealth, and happiness. |

| | | | | |
|------------------------------------|-----------|-----------|---|-----------|
| | | | humans are able to forgive (if at all). | |
| Length (in weeks) | Quarter 1 | Quarter 2 | Quarter 3 | Quarter 4 |